

Nonfiction Research Materials Survey

Poplar Creek Public Library District

LIS 748 – Collection Management

Erin Stoner

12/13/2017

The Poplar Creek Public Library District intends to use the results of this survey is to identify if additional physical or digital nonfiction research materials are needed for our adult users. Please take some time to help us understand your needs. Thank you for your time!

1. Please indicate your age group. (circle answer)

24 and under | 25 to 34 | 35 to 54 | 55 to 64 | 65 and older

2. How often do you visit the Poplar Creek Public Library? (circle answer)

Every week (or more often) | Every Month | Every few months | Once a year | Rarely ever

3. Please check up to three areas you feel would benefit from additional or newer materials:

<input type="checkbox"/>	000	Computer science, information and general works
<input type="checkbox"/>	100	Philosophy and psychology
<input type="checkbox"/>	200	Religion
<input type="checkbox"/>	300	Social sciences
<input type="checkbox"/>	400	Science (including mathematics)
<input type="checkbox"/>	500	Language
<input type="checkbox"/>	600	Technology and applied Science (including medicine and engineering)
<input type="checkbox"/>	700	Arts and recreation
<input type="checkbox"/>	800	Literature
<input type="checkbox"/>	900	History, geography, and biography

4. Do you prefer physical items, digital databases / resources or a mix of both?

Physical Resources Both
 Digital Resources

5. Are there any specific formats of Nonfiction materials you find we are lacking?

Books Audiobook CDs
 DVDs eBooks / Electronic Audiobooks

6. Do you feel any areas of the nonfiction research collection have been especially beneficial to your research? Name topics of research or titles to give us an idea of what is helpful.

7. Are there any areas in which you have felt especially frustrated when searching for information at our library? Name specific topics of research to help us improve those sections.